Flower happiness

Heroes of the fairy tale: author, 2 flowers, bee, river, wind, earth, eco-squad (2-3 children)

Author

On the hill

by the stream

the flowers will soon bloom

Among the sunny rays.

Flower 1:

How beautiful! How wonderful!

How interesting is everything around!

Bees:

We're waiting you to bloom!

And give us some nectar!

Flower 1

Mother Earth

Help me to bloom,

Bring joy to the bees.

Earth:

I wish I could help.

Only yesterday without a case

There was a picnic here.

Someone spilled a Coke,

Packages were trown,

And the car was washed.

Flower 1:

I'll open the petals!

River, river, help!

River:

I'd give you some water.

But I'm not doing well.

Muddy waters flow

They contain both garbage and fuel oil.

Flower 1:

So! What should I do?

Who will help me in trouble?

Wind, wind, hurry up

Get some fresh air!

Wind:

I would be happy to help you the flower,

Only, apparently, I can't.

There's a fire in the woods far away.

I carry a fume.

My air is poisonous!

Flower 2:

Fire runs through the branches.

The flower can die.

How scared I am!

Children:

Let's help to lay down the fire.

Children:

The fire is out! The forest is saved!

Nature has been damaged.

Poor flower. Look!

Let's help!

Children:

The fire was put out, the garbage was cleaned.

And the rain helped us.

Look, flower, how beautiful!

All:

What a beauty!

Chamomile:

Thank you all!

Final words:

Author:

The beauty of nature depends on us.

The earth is beautiful! Just save it!
